YOU'LL NEVER FIND ANOTHER KANAKA LIKE ME

Since Don Ho made this song popular in the 1960s, the word 'kanaka' has assumed a slightly negative connotation. The song is regularly sung now substituting the word 'Hawaiian' for 'kanaka.'

You may go

I'll let you go

May God bless you

You'll be mine

wherever you will be

It's Hawaii to say Aloha.

Oh you'll never find another kanaka like me

Oh no, you'll never find another kanaka like me.

Pa'ani.

Repeat me.
